Escondido East Rotarian's bringing Christmas cheer to the ECCDC

It was nice having so many friends of Rotary volunteers helping out.

Nice stocking filled gifts were given by Santa to the kids. These were stuffed at Marty and Amy's house. Mugs and cookies given by ECCDC.

The kids sang for all of us, very nice.

Santa having some fun being away from the North Pole, acts like Marty!! Patty has some moves herself.

This is why Marty always wants to have this job at ECCDC. They all did GREAT!

Got to love that spaghetti and everything else that comes with it

How well do we know one of our newest members Amir? Well, he is getting to know Mary better.

Our Rotary Christmas Party is 12/17. Bring a wrapped gift for the exchange, Best Wishes for 2011
